GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA SESSION 2021

S

SENATE BILL 374

Sponsors: Senators Jarvis, Ford, and Perry (Primary Sponsors). Referred to: Rules and Operations of the Senate March 30, 2021 1 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED 2 AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE USE OF BLUE LIGHTS ON FIRE APPARATUS. 3 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: 4 SECTION 1. G.S. 20-130.1(c) reads as rewritten: 5 "(c) It is unlawful for any person to possess a blue light or to install, activate, or operate a 6 blue light in or on any vehicle in this State, except for a publicly owned fire apparatus, and the blue lights are only visible from the rear of a fire apparatus when the parking brake is 7 enforcement purposes or purposes, any other vehicle is a publicly owned fire apparatus, and the blue lights are only visible from the rear of a fire apparatus when the parking brake is 8 engaged and the on-scene lights are activated. For purposes of this subsection, the term "fire 11 apparatus" means any of the following apparatus, as they are defined in the most recent version 12 of NFPA 1901, the Standard for Automotive Fire Apparatus, published by the National Fire 13 Protection Association: pumper apparatus, mobile foam apparatus, initial attack apparatus, quint, tanker apparatus, and aerial apparatus, as used in this subsection, unless the context requires otherwise, "blue light" means any blue light installed on a vehicle after initial manufactur
March 30, 2021 1 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED 2 AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE USE OF BLUE LIGHTS ON FIRE APPARATUS. 3 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: 4 SECTION 1. G.S. 20-130.1(c) reads as rewritten: 5 "(c) It is unlawful for any person to possess a blue light or to install, activate, or operate a 6 blue light in or on any vehicle in this State, except for a publicly owned vehicle used for law enforcement purposes or purposes, any other vehicle when used by law enforcement officers in 8 the performance of their official duties, ot the vehicle is a publicly owned fire apparatus, and the blue lights are only visible from the rear of a fire apparatus when the parking brake is 9 and the blue lights are only visible from the rear of a fire apparatus, bublished by the National Fire 10 of NFPA 1901, the Standard for Automotive Fire Apparatus, published by the National Fire 11 and aerial apparatus. As used in this subsection, unless the context requires 12 otherwise, "blue light "means any blue light installed on a vehicle after initial manufacture of the 14 tanker apparatus, and aerial apparatus. As used in this subsection, unless the context requires 13 otherwise, "blue light means any blue light installed on a vehicle after initial manufacture of the 14 tanker apparatus, and ae 1A BILL TO BE ENTITLED2AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE USE OF BLUE LIGHTS ON FIRE APPARATUS.3The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:4SECTION 1. G.S. 20-130.1(c) reads as rewritten:5"(c) It is unlawful for any person to possess a blue light or to install, activate, or operate a6blue light in or on any vehicle in this State, except for a publicly owned vehicle used for law7enforcement purposes or purposes, any other vehicle when used by law enforcement officers in8the performance of their official duties. duties, or the vehicle is a publicly owned fire apparatus,9and the blue lights are only visible from the rear of a fire apparatus when the parking brake is10engaged and the on-scene lights are activated. For purposes of this subsection, the term "fire11apparatus" means any of the following apparatus, as they are defined in the most recent version12of NFPA 1901, the Standard for Automotive Fire Apparatus, initial attack apparatus, quint,14tanker apparatus, and aerial apparatus. As used in this subsection, unless the context requires15otherwise, "blue light "means any blue light installed on a vehicle after initial manufacture of the16vehicle; or an operable blue light which:17(1)Is not (i) being installed on, held in inventory for the purpose of being installed18on, or held in inventory for the purpose of sale for installation on a vehicle on19which it may be lawfully operated or (ii) installed on a vehicle which is used19solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law <tr< th=""></tr<>
2AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE USE OF BLUE LIGHTS ON FIRE APPARATUS.3The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:4SECTION 1. G.S. 20-130.1(c) reads as rewritten:5"(c) It is unlawful for any person to possess a blue light or to install, activate, or operate a6blue light in or on any vehicle in this State, except for a publicly owned vehicle used for law7enforcement purposes or purposes, any other vehicle when used by law enforcement officers in8the performance of their official duties. duties, or the vehicle is a publicly owned fire apparatus,9and the blue lights are only visible from the rear of a fire apparatus when the parking brake is10engaged and the on-scene lights are activated. For purposes of this subsection, the term "fire11apparatus" means any of the following apparatus, as they are defined in the most recent version12of NFPA 1901, the Standard for Automotive Fire Apparatus, published by the National Fire13Protection Association: pumper apparatus. As used in this subsection, unless the context requires14tanker apparatus, and aerial apparatus. As used in this subsection, unless the context requires15otherwise, "blue light" means any blue light which:17(1)Is not (i) being installed on, held in inventory for the purpose of being installed18on, or held in inventory for the purpose of sale for installation on a vehicle on19which it may be lawfully operated or (ii) installed on a vehicle which is used20solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law21enforcement personnel;<
2AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE USE OF BLUE LIGHTS ON FIRE APPARATUS.3The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:4SECTION 1. G.S. 20-130.1(c) reads as rewritten:5"(c) It is unlawful for any person to possess a blue light or to install, activate, or operate a6blue light in or on any vehicle in this State, except for a publicly owned vehicle used for law7enforcement purposes or purposes, any other vehicle when used by law enforcement officers in8the performance of their official duties. duties, or the vehicle is a publicly owned fire apparatus,9and the blue lights are only visible from the rear of a fire apparatus when the parking brake is10engaged and the on-scene lights are activated. For purposes of this subsection, the term "fire11apparatus" means any of the following apparatus, as they are defined in the most recent version12of NFPA 1901, the Standard for Automotive Fire Apparatus, published by the National Fire13Protection Association: pumper apparatus. As used in this subsection, unless the context requires14tanker apparatus, and aerial apparatus. As used in this subsection, unless the context requires15otherwise, "blue light" means any blue light which:17(1)Is not (i) being installed on, held in inventory for the purpose of being installed18on, or held in inventory for the purpose of sale for installation on a vehicle on19which it may be lawfully operated or (ii) installed on a vehicle which is used20solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law21enforcement personnel;< SECTION 1. G.S. 20-130.1(c) reads as rewritten: "(c) It is unlawful for any person to possess a blue light or to install, activate, or operate a blue light in or on any vehicle in this State, except for a publicly owned vehicle used for law enforcement purposes or purposes, any other vehicle when used by law enforcement officers in the performance of their official dutiesduties, or the vehicle is a publicly owned fire apparatus, and the blue lights are only visible from the rear of a fire apparatus when the parking brake is engaged and the on-scene lights are activated. For purposes of this subsection, the term "fire apparatus" means any of the following apparatus, as they are defined in the most recent version of NFPA 1901, the Standard for Automotive Fire Apparatus, published by the National Fire Protection Association: pumper apparatus. As used in this subsection, unless the context requires otherwise, "blue light" means any blue light installed on a vehicle after initial manufacture of the vehicle; or an operable blue light which: (1) Is not (i) being installed on, held in inventory for the purpose of being installed on, or held in inventory for the purpose of sale for installation on a vehicle on which it may be lawfully operated or (ii) installed on a vehicle which is used solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law enforcement personnel; (1a) Is designed for use by an emergency vehicle, or is similar in appearance to a
 "(c) It is unlawful for any person to possess a blue light or to install, activate, or operate a blue light in or on any vehicle in this State, except for a publicly owned vehicle used for law enforcement purposes or purposes, any other vehicle when used by law enforcement officers in the performance of their official duties. duties, or the vehicle is a publicly owned fire apparatus, and the blue lights are only visible from the rear of a fire apparatus when the parking brake is engaged and the on-scene lights are activated. For purposes of this subsection, the term "fire apparatus" means any of the following apparatus, as they are defined in the most recent version of NFPA 1901, the Standard for Automotive Fire Apparatus, published by the National Fire Protection Association: pumper apparatus. As used in this subsection, unless the context requires otherwise, "blue light" means any blue light installed on a vehicle after initial manufacture of the vehicle; or an operable blue light which: (1) Is not (i) being installed on, held in inventory for the purpose of being installed on, or held in inventory for the purpose of sale for installation on a vehicle on which it may be lawfully operated or (ii) installed on a vehicle which is used solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law enforcement personnel; (1) Is designed for use by an emergency vehicle, or is similar in appearance to a blue light in or on any vehicle in this State, except for a publicly owned vehicle used for law enforcement purposes or purposes, any other vehicle when used by law enforcement officers in the performance of their official duties. duties, or the vehicle is a publicly owned fire apparatus, and the blue lights are only visible from the rear of a fire apparatus when the parking brake is engaged and the on-scene lights are activated. For purposes of this subsection, the term "fire apparatus" means any of the following apparatus, as they are defined in the most recent version of NFPA 1901, the Standard for Automotive Fire Apparatus, published by the National Fire Protection Association: pumper apparatus. As used in this subsection, unless the context requires otherwise, "blue light" means any blue light installed on a vehicle after initial manufacture of the vehicle; or an operable blue light which: (1) Is not (i) being installed on, held in inventory for the purpose of being installed on, or held in inventory for the purpose of sale for installation on a vehicle on which it may be lawfully operated or (ii) installed on a vehicle which is used solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law enforcement personnel; (1a) Is designed for use by an emergency vehicle, or is similar in appearance to a enforcement purposes or purposes, any other vehicle when used by law enforcement officers in the performance of their official duties. duties, or the vehicle is a publicly owned fire apparatus, and the blue lights are only visible from the rear of a fire apparatus when the parking brake is engaged and the on-scene lights are activated. For purposes of this subsection, the term "fire apparatus" means any of the following apparatus, as they are defined in the most recent version of NFPA 1901, the Standard for Automotive Fire Apparatus, published by the National Fire Protection Association: pumper apparatus, mobile foam apparatus, initial attack apparatus, quint, tanker apparatus, and aerial apparatus. As used in this subsection, unless the context requires otherwise, "blue light" means any blue light installed on a vehicle after initial manufacture of the vehicle; or an operable blue light which: (1) Is not (i) being installed on, held in inventory for the purpose of being installed on, or held in inventory for the purpose of sale for installation on a vehicle on which it may be lawfully operated or (ii) installed on a vehicle which is used solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law enforcement personnel; (1a) Is designed for use by an emergency vehicle, or is similar in appearance to a the performance of their official duties. duties, or the vehicle is a publicly owned fire apparatus, and the blue lights are only visible from the rear of a fire apparatus when the parking brake is engaged and the on-scene lights are activated. For purposes of this subsection, the term "fire apparatus" means any of the following apparatus, as they are defined in the most recent version of NFPA 1901, the Standard for Automotive Fire Apparatus, published by the National Fire Protection Association: pumper apparatus, mobile foam apparatus, initial attack apparatus, quint, tanker apparatus, and aerial apparatus. As used in this subsection, unless the context requires otherwise, "blue light" means any blue light installed on a vehicle after initial manufacture of the vehicle; or an operable blue light which: (1) Is not (i) being installed on, held in inventory for the purpose of being installed on, or held in inventory for the purpose of sale for installation on a vehicle on which it may be lawfully operated or (ii) installed on a vehicle which is used solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law enforcement personnel; (1a) Is designed for use by an emergency vehicle, or is similar in appearance to a
 and the blue lights are only visible from the rear of a fire apparatus when the parking brake is engaged and the on-scene lights are activated. For purposes of this subsection, the term "fire apparatus" means any of the following apparatus, as they are defined in the most recent version of NFPA 1901, the Standard for Automotive Fire Apparatus, published by the National Fire Protection Association: pumper apparatus, mobile foam apparatus, initial attack apparatus, quint, tanker apparatus, and aerial apparatus. As used in this subsection, unless the context requires otherwise, "blue light" means any blue light installed on a vehicle after initial manufacture of the vehicle; or an operable blue light which: (1) Is not (i) being installed on, held in inventory for the purpose of being installed on, or held in inventory for the purpose of sale for installation on a vehicle on which it may be lawfully operated or (ii) installed on a vehicle which is used solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law enforcement personnel; (1) Is designed for use by an emergency vehicle, or is similar in appearance to a engaged and the on-scene lights are activated. For purposes of this subsection, the term "fire apparatus" means any of the following apparatus, as they are defined in the most recent version of NFPA 1901, the Standard for Automotive Fire Apparatus, published by the National Fire Protection Association: pumper apparatus, mobile foam apparatus, initial attack apparatus, quint, tanker apparatus, and aerial apparatus. As used in this subsection, unless the context requires otherwise, "blue light" means any blue light installed on a vehicle after initial manufacture of the vehicle; or an operable blue light which: (1) Is not (i) being installed on, held in inventory for the purpose of being installed on, or held in inventory for the purpose of sale for installation on a vehicle on which it may be lawfully operated or (ii) installed on a vehicle which is used solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law enforcement personnel; (1a) Is designed for use by an emergency vehicle, or is similar in appearance to a 11apparatus" means any of the following apparatus, as they are defined in the most recent version12of NFPA 1901, the Standard for Automotive Fire Apparatus, published by the National Fire13Protection Association: pumper apparatus, mobile foam apparatus, initial attack apparatus, quint,14tanker apparatus, and aerial apparatus. As used in this subsection, unless the context requires15otherwise, "blue light" means any blue light installed on a vehicle after initial manufacture of the16vehicle; or an operable blue light which:17(1)18on, or held in inventory for the purpose of being installed19which it may be lawfully operated or (ii) installed on a vehicle which is used20solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law21enforcement personnel;22(1a)Is designed for use by an emergency vehicle, or is similar in appearance to a 12of NFPA 1901, the Standard for Automotive Fire Apparatus, published by the National Fire13Protection Association: pumper apparatus, mobile foam apparatus, initial attack apparatus, quint,14tanker apparatus, and aerial apparatus. As used in this subsection, unless the context requires15otherwise, "blue light" means any blue light installed on a vehicle after initial manufacture of the16vehicle; or an operable blue light which:17(1)18n, or held in inventory for the purpose of being installed19which it may be lawfully operated or (ii) installed on a vehicle which is used20solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law21enforcement personnel;22(1a)Is designed for use by an emergency vehicle, or is similar in appearance to a Protection Association: pumper apparatus, mobile foam apparatus, initial attack apparatus, quint, tanker apparatus, and aerial apparatus. As used in this subsection, unless the context requires otherwise, "blue light" means any blue light installed on a vehicle after initial manufacture of the vehicle; or an operable blue light which: (1) Is not (i) being installed on, held in inventory for the purpose of being installed on, or held in inventory for the purpose of sale for installation on a vehicle on which it may be lawfully operated or (ii) installed on a vehicle which is used solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law enforcement personnel; (1a) Is designed for use by an emergency vehicle, or is similar in appearance to a 14tanker apparatus, and aerial apparatus. As used in this subsection, unless the context requires15otherwise, "blue light" means any blue light installed on a vehicle after initial manufacture of the16vehicle; or an operable blue light which:17(1)18not (i) being installed on, held in inventory for the purpose of being installed18on, or held in inventory for the purpose of sale for installation on a vehicle on19which it may be lawfully operated or (ii) installed on a vehicle which is used20solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law21enforcement personnel;22(1a)Is designed for use by an emergency vehicle, or is similar in appearance to a otherwise, "blue light" means any blue light installed on a vehicle after initial manufacture of the vehicle; or an operable blue light which: (1) Is not (i) being installed on, held in inventory for the purpose of being installed on, or held in inventory for the purpose of sale for installation on a vehicle on which it may be lawfully operated or (ii) installed on a vehicle which is used solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law enforcement personnel; (1a) Is designed for use by an emergency vehicle, or is similar in appearance to a vehicle; or an operable blue light which: (1) Is not (i) being installed on, held in inventory for the purpose of being installed on, or held in inventory for the purpose of sale for installation on a vehicle on which it may be lawfully operated or (ii) installed on a vehicle which is used solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law enforcement personnel; Is designed for use by an emergency vehicle, or is similar in appearance to a 17 (1) Is not (i) being installed on, held in inventory for the purpose of being installed 18 on, or held in inventory for the purpose of sale for installation on a vehicle on 19 which it may be lawfully operated or (ii) installed on a vehicle which is used 20 solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law 21 enforcement personnel; 22 (1a) Is designed for use by an emergency vehicle, or is similar in appearance to a
 on, or held in inventory for the purpose of sale for installation on a vehicle on which it may be lawfully operated or (ii) installed on a vehicle which is used solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law enforcement personnel; Is designed for use by an emergency vehicle, or is similar in appearance to a
 which it may be lawfully operated or (ii) installed on a vehicle which is used solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law enforcement personnel; Is designed for use by an emergency vehicle, or is similar in appearance to a 20solely for the purpose of demonstrating the blue light for sale to law21enforcement personnel;22(1a)Is designed for use by an emergency vehicle, or is similar in appearance to a 22 (1a) Is designed for use by an emergency vehicle, or is similar in appearance to a 23 blue light designed for use by an emergency vehicle; and 24 (2) Can be operated by use of the vehicle's battery, the vehicle's electrical system, 25 or a dry cell battery."
26 SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2021.

