10	EXPLOITATION.
11	Whereas, the United States Supreme Court held in City of Erie v. Pap's A.M., 529
12	U.S. 277 (2000), that expressive conduct in nude dancing falls only within the outer ambit of the
13	First Amendment's protection and that regulations designed to curb the deleterious effects caused
14	by the presence of a live adult entertainment establishment in a neighborhood do not offend the
15	First Amendment; and
16	Whereas, informed by the United States Supreme Court's decisions in City of Erie v.
17	Pap's A.M., 529 U.S. 277 (2000), and City of Los Angeles v. Alameda Books, Inc., 535 U.S. 425
18	(2002), the Texas Supreme Court in Combs v. Texas Entertainment Association, Inc., 347
19	S.W.3d 277 (Tex. 2011), held that a state statute that imposes a five-dollar admission fee on live
20	adult entertain	adult entertainment establishments is constitutional under the First Amendment because the fee
21	is:

27		effects of the expression in the presence of the aggravating factor	of alcohol;
28		and
29		hereas, because the erotic dancing at adult live entertainment business
30	Carolina is of the same licentious character as the adult live entertainment businesses at issue in
31	cases before the United States Supreme Court, such as Renton v. Playtime Theatres, Inc., 475
32	U.S. 41 (1986), Young v. American Mini Theatres, Inc., 427 U.S. 50 (1976), and California v.
33	LaRue, 409 U.S. 109 (1972), the General Assembly concludes that such erotic dancing is likely
34 35	producing the same secondary effects in the State of North Carolina and intends to combat those secondary effects by enacting the Eight Exploitation Funding Act (EEEA); and

General Assembly Of North Carolina

1 2	Whereas, the United States Supreme Court in Renton v. Playtime Theatres, Inc., 475 U.S. 41 (1986), held that a "time, place, and manner" zoning restriction on an adult business does
3 4	not violate the First Amendment if it is aimed not at the content of adult entertainment, but at the
5	•	secondary effects of sexually oriented businesses on the surrounding community, and if the
6	restriction is "designed to prevent crime, protect the city's retail trade, maintain property values, and generally protect and preserve the quality of the city's neighborhoods, commercial districts,
7	and the quality of urban life, not to suppress the expression of unpopular views." Accordingly,
8	the Fight Exploitation Funding Act (FEFA) is:
9	(1)	Aimed at offsetting the costs of sexual assault, prostitution, disorderly
10 11	× /	conduct, human trafficking, and a variety of other crimes and social ills encouraged and promoted by adult live entertainment businesses that serve
12		alcohol;
13	(2)	Enacted pursuant to the State's inherent police powers afforded to the State of
14		North Carolina in view of the Tenth Amendment of the United States
15		Constitution to protect the health, safety, morals, and general welfare of its
16		inhabitants;
17	(3)	Not purposed to suppress the expression of unpopular views; and
18		eas, the legislature recognizes that there are a number of nonprofit organizations
19	U	expense to provide assistance to victims of human trafficking and child
20	1	to promote awareness and that permitting these types of nonprofit organizations
21	-	unding through the North Carolina Human Trafficking and Child Exploitation
22 23	Prevention Grant Fund would substantially further, strengthen, and advance compelling State
23 24	interests, while easing the burden on law enforcement; Now, therefore,
